

CUNY Assessment Council Presentation on Assessment for Student Affairs

By Don Sutherland

On Friday, the CUNY Assessment Council featured a presentation of Assessment for Student Affairs offices by Michael Sachs. Sachs is Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

The presentation covered among the following concepts:

- Operational assessment
- Direct evidence
- Indirect evidence
- The use of embedded elements of direct evidence in indirect assessment
- Rubrics for a range of Student Affairs groups
- The common issue of goals that are not specific or measurable
