

ANNY Conference Begins

By Don Sutherland

The Assessment Network of New York's annual conference has begun. The conference will contain a wide range of presentations aimed at enhancing assessment and its use for institutional improvement and student success. The keynote addresses will cover assessment with a lens on equity and an introduction to a holistic institutional effectiveness framework.